ALL READ THE NEWSPAPERS.—In the leading article of the current issue of Printers' Ink John C. Graham gives advice about advertising to retail dealers. He notes the fact that "the most successful advertisers the world over pin themselves to the newspapers as being the best method. The newspapers are not to the homes at all times." papers go into the homes at all times and in all weathers; travelers read them and so do stay-at-homes, while to the latter all outdoor advertising must Camp Hall, on MONDAY, Mayeh 25th, at be lost. This is one great advantage newspaper advertising has over all other kinds—the certainty that it will be seen and read by the general public."
